

An exponential expression is completely simplified if...

	Examples	Nonexamples
There are no zero or negative exponents.
The same base appears only once in a product or quotient.
No powers are raised to powers.
No products are raised to powers.
No quotients are raised to powers.
Numerical coefficients in a quotient do not have any common factor other than 1.		